THE ADVENTURES OF ADENOID.

In the beginning a sweet little romance is brewing between little Adnoid and his country sweetie Lizzie Mouse. In fact they are getting along swimmingly. But of course Lizzie is like a lot of girls, and when a swell dude mouse with a second hand flivver blew in from the big city, little Lizzie's heart's all a flutter.

Well, to make a short story short, and a true story a little, just a little exaggerated, Lizzie runs away with dude mouse. They tour all of the under sea cabarets and do some spooning in the shady nooks and caves, until a desperate cowboy fish attacks them and steals little Lizzie right from the weak yellow dude's flabby arms. The dude runs furiously away yelling "Help" at the top of his shreaching voice. His cries attract the pining country lover and he rushes to the rescue.

The Big Broad shoulder bully cowboy fish and the sincere lover wage battle "Hammer and Tongs". In the end "Right triumphs over Might", and the lovers are re-united, and vow never to seporate again.

Aesop says: "All is well that ends well."
